BRITISH SCHOOLS LOSE AT CRICKET. The British public schools and the Universities Club put a cricket team in the field yesterday and played a good game against the Manhattans, though their players were defeated by sixty-cirkit runs. This result was brought about by the ex-cellent batting of A. C. Copeland and the good cellent batting of A. C. Copenan and the good bowling of F. G. Warburton and H. S. Tattersall. The latter also played good limings for the win-ners, and was well backed by R. D. Jennings. For the British public schools, W. P. Ward played a splendid innings of thirty. Following is the score:

THIRTY-FOOTERS RACE AGAIN

Newport, R. I., July 29 .- The thirty-footers to-day raced up the bay to Briggs Ledge buoy, off Wickford Harbor, and return, about eighteen miles. The wind was from the southwest and fluky, with a flat calm race, being under repairs at Bristol. The Dorothy and the Carolina made their first appearance in this series. The Hers failed to finish, going aground in trying to crowd too close to the upper end of Conaninut Island. Results: The Asahl, Captain Watson, 2:57:23: the Puck, Mr. Morgan, 3:02:24: the Wawa, Mr. Stiffman, 3:02:26; the Dorothy, Mr. Duryed, 3:02:50; the Carolina, Captain Woods, 2:05:08.

CHANGES IN THE FIFTH-AVE. STAGES.

SOME SECRECY AS TO THE PLANS OF THE NEW COMPANT-A POSSIBILITY THAT THEY WILL

Fifth-ave stages and horses were made yesterday by Campbell Ward, at No. 29 Wall-st., who said, however, that he had bought the line at the receiver's sale. The Elliott F. Shepard estate, which formerly controlled the Fifth-ave, stage line, has disposed of its interests in the company, according to tion of a complete change in the management will be withdrawn, and the horses likewise, while in their stead handsome and newly equipped coaches their stead handsome and newly equipped coached drawn by fine steeds will appear. It is also said that the rule made by Elliott F. Shepard, prohibiting the stages from running on Sunday, will be abrogated, but Mr. Ward maintained profound secrecy yesterday on that point. The new management, it is also said, may furnish stages for theatre parties after the plan of the theatre trolleycars; and, later, it is hinted, the new company may add a coach and cab service at popular rates to the stage for the plan of the theatre trolleycars; and, later, it is hinted, the new company may add a coach and cab service at popular rates to outrons who do not keep carriages of their own.

A MAD DOG BITES TWO PEOPLE.

FOURTH-ST .- FINALLY SHOT BY A POLICEMAN.

A small black-and-tan terrier, after biting a boy and a man, met death at the hands of Policeman Creely, of the East Sixty-seventh-st station, last Opens Tuesday, October 6th, 1896 night in the Bohemian quarter in East Seventy-fourth-st., between First and Second aves. The dog was first seen running down Seventy-fourth-st.
snapping at everything that came in his way.
He bit the right hand of a sixteen-year-old boy severely, and some of the lad's companions then verely, and some of the lad's companions then chased the animal into the areaway of No. 251 East Seventy-fourth-st. Joseph Yos; a plasterer, of No. 257 East Seventy-third-st, went down into the areaway and attempted to quiet him, but the dog bit him in the right arm. Yost had his wound casterized at a neighboring drug store. Policeman Creedy finally attempted to dislodge the dog from the corner in the areaway, where he had taken refuge. The dog snappel at him, and Creedy drew his revolver and shot him.

TO WEED OUT BOGUS DOCTORS.

A CENSUS OF PRACTISING PHYSICIANS TAKEN BY THE POLICE FOR THE COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

The County Medical Society is again making a determined effort to weed out the bogus doctors. With the aid of the police, a complete census of the practising physicians of the city was taken yesterday, and the census will be submitted to the County Society for inspection. If any bogus or unreceive prompt attention. There may be fewer phy-sicians in New-York when the work has been comsicians in New-York when the work has been con-pleted. There are a number of doctors in the ci-who are regular graduates of European school and who came here within the year, who put if a "sningle" and began the practice of their pri-fession, not knowing that they had no right do so until they had passed an examination befor-the Sinte Board of Medical Examiners. INJURED AT THE NEW ASTOR HOTEL.

A WORKMAN IN A SERIOUS CONDITION FROM THE FALL OF A DERRICK BOOM.

John McEwen, twenty-nine years old, of No. Redford-ave., Brooklyn, a foreman in the employ of the Cornell Iron Works, was seriously injured at the new Astor hotel, at Thirty-fourth-st, and Fifth-ave, yesterday afternoon. The boom of a derrick fed upon him, fracturing his right leg, dislocating his left hip and inflicting severe contusions of the scalp. He is in a serious condition at Bellevue Hos-pital. The hotel is being built by the Astors, and is not yet ramed.
